The Horizon

The Annual Staff began with a bang, having the largest number of students in the past several years. However, only Editor Michelle Smith was a returnee from last year. So, many hours of frustration, learning by mistakes and experiences and re-doing page layouts were the order of the day. But through it all, the staff kept its sense of humor and its goal of turning out a top quality 1981 Horizon

The Horizon Staff. Sitting (l to r) Danielle Douglas, Vic Matthews, Marleen Ong, Lisa Kendall, Michelle Smith, Sharon Kasey, Tami McClung and Dave Levan. # The Buffalo

Plagued by the problems inherent in a small staff, three seniors produced the first issue of The Buffalo by themselves. As soon as possible, members of the basic class were added and the newspaper continued to improve. First Semester Editor Chris Shaw graduated and headed to ASU, handing the reins to Senior Sharon Kaney. Though hampered by a shortage of printing money, Sharon continued to maintain the newspaper's high standards.

Paige and Ernie chuckle over a humorous selection while Johica and Robinne look on

1 col —

Ever since we've known each other for a couple of years, you are still the sweetest & cutest guys I've met in my whole life. I wish I could have seen more of you this year.
But hopefully next year we'll have a class or something together. Always stay the sweetest person there is & you'll be far more maybe someday soon we'll meet again at Regent Park any of you can, I'll be in town this summer (around June) in all these days have a good summer!

Campus Life

Campus Life

Junior Frances Solomayor joined many other Tempe High students at the semester break as she sold books which she would no longer need back to the bookstore.

All was not work at the DECA carwash in the Fall. Rather, some dancing (of a sorts) apparently took place. Posing at the apex of a rather raucous Can Can kick are Larry Lieberman, Dove Hicks, Adviser Mr. Pete Trowbridge, Marleen Ong, Laura Folz and Chris Shaw.

Apparently pleased by whatever or whoever she's watching is Senior Bobi Jenckes, very much at ease during her lunch break

Football players wear a tie on the day of their game to signify team unity. But the lack of ties with normal dress in Tempe has its drawbacks. A guy quickly forgets how to tie one. But there are compensations as when Junior Scott West got a helping hand from Junior Jennifer Flannagan to get the maverick piece of cloth knotted tightly against his neck.

Bicycles remained one of the most popular models of transportation, particularly in these days of rising gasoline prices. Though most upper class men preferred cars to the two wheelers, enough bike-transported Tempe High students to fill two security compounds

The daily bus ride was not the favorite way to end a day. But hundreds depended on the big yellow transports to get them home enough to their homes that walking wasn't an unbearable chore

Looking like he just rode in from the range is Senior Vic Mathews, sporting a black cowboy hat and boots. Though some THS students habitually wore the popular western gear, Vic was attired for one of the special dress-up days before a traditional game.

Senior class president Laura Folz was spirited during a western dress-up day to the point of the black cowboy hat.

TEMPE HIGH SCHOOL

T VS MC GAME

WE STOMPED ON MAC ALRIGHT 33-30

'Nuff said. The charged up Buffaloes surprised an over confident, cocky crew of McClintock Chargers in the annual inter-city rivalry. Though Mac went on to take the state title, the Buffs could boast that they had beaten the AAA champions and had been only one game from facing them again in the finals.

Junior Robinne Gray listens intently to someone as she sips her milk during an outdoor lunch on one of Tempe's warm fall days. Her costume was typical of THS coeds

Part of the Unit Five crowd hoots, calls and hollers at passing students, generally females. Making their presence heard are Chris Hall, Jim Herchel, John Mahan, Greg Boncella, Mike Nesbitt, Vic Mathews, and Dave Belousek.

Senior Sherri Smyth seems to threaten with the gavel as she speaks her mind during a meeting of DECA

Hats appeared on many heads as part of the campus "fashion" scene. Football player Mike Nesbitt sports a billed cap with a bit of advertising on the front on a game day, the latter signified by the not too common necktie
